

Please protect the do not call act, Telephone Consumer Protection Act. With the advent of identity theft and internet hackers in this age it is much harder to protect the privacy rights of American citizens. The Telephone Consumer Protection Act is a step in the right direction.